San Diego County Regional Airport Authority Releases Annual Sustainability Report

From — San Diego International Airport (SAN)

Dec 9th, 2020

The San Diego County Regional Airport Authority (Airport Authority) released the organization's 2019-2020 Sustainability Report. The Sustainability Report serves as a useful barometer for San Diego International Airport's (SAN) relationship to the environment, the traveling public, its stakeholders and the greater San Diego community.

Meet the airport's top dogs

To keep our human volunteers safe during the pandemic, we temporarily suspended our pet therapy program, and recently brought back a small group on a limited basis. If you're like us, you're wondering what the dogs have been up to during their hiatus. To find out, we did a Q&A with two of our top dogs - Ollie and Willow - and their dedicated human companions.

7/2020 Happy holidays from SAN!
How we miss the excitement of holiday travel!

How we miss the excitement of holiday travel! December is typically a very busy month for our airport, when the terminals are filled with passengers eager to see family all over the world. This year many of us are staying home and finding creative ways to stay connected to the people and places that matter most.

Examining SAN's HVAC system

During the pandemic, there has been a great deal of emphasis on air circulation and its relation to COVID-19. All HVAC systems at San Diego International Airport (SAN) are designed to meet American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers standards for ventilation for indoor air quality. Our systems meet or exceed industry filtration standards, meaning we filter the air at a recommended level between "Superior Commercial Buildings" and "Hospital Inpatient Care." Additionally, 60 percent of air handlers installed in the airport contain ultraviolet light which provides extra protection to kill bacteria and viruses.

12/17/2020 December Holiday Travel Tips

What is normally a busy travel time, this December is looking quite different due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On November 13, 2020, the California Department of Public Health issued a travel advisory for non-essential travel (side note: what's essential vs. non-essential travel you ask? Click here to learn more) which requests that persons arriving in California from other states or countries should practice self-quarantining for 14 days after arrival. In addition, Californians are encouraged to stay home or in their region and avoid non-essential travel to other states or countries.

1/5/2021 More Bridge, More Sun

If you've ever traveled through the far west gate at SAN (Gate 51 in Terminal 2, to be precise), you may have noticed the glass bridge connecting the terminal to the waiting aircraft. This Passenger Boarding Bridge, or PBB, is not only unique to SAN, but also to other airports in the U.S.

Return of Service to Japan and New Route to New York City

We are excited that Japan Airlines has announced they will resume nonstop service to Tokyo, Japan via Narita International Airport (NRT) from San Diego International Airport (SAN) three times a week. The first arrival into San Diego will be on March 2 and the first departure from San Diego on March 3.
